

What to Bring

(This is a list of items that people often forget. It is not a complete list of what you should bring.)

- Plenty of clothes for temperatures that can dip to the 40s at night (Shehaqua is located in the Pocono Mountains) and sometimes rise to the 90s during the day.
- Bathing suits for swimming in the pool and towels. Girls should bring onepiece swimsuits only.
- Sleeping bags or plenty of warm blankets, pillow.
- Flashlights and batteries—it can get pitch dark on a moonless night. Each person should have their own flashlight.
- A lantern in the cabin is very useful
- Bug repellent
- Toothbrushes and toothpaste (Shampoo and soap are provided).
- Battery powered alarm clock
- Sturdy closed shoes for hiking and running around
- Rain boots, raincoats, and/or umbrella. Umbrellas are good for short walks in the rain between cabins and lodges.
- Camping chairs -optional- (for camp fire night, to sit on the porch, etc)
- Board games, card games
- Containers to collect and bring home blueberries, in case there are any when you get there.
- Clothesline - about 50 feet (16 meters) is recommended.
- Guitars and other musical instruments if you have them -optional-
